Australian Government

Department of Climate Change, Energy, the Environment and Water

Water efficient product labelling and display checklist

Use this checklist to help you meet Water Efficiency Labelling and Standards (WELS) scheme requirements.

You must be able to answer 'Yes' to all questions except question 6. For more information, see the WELS Standard.

Business name

Model name

Date (dd/mm/yyyy)

Registered product details

Registration number

Licence number

Star rating

Consumption

Registration

1   The product is registered in the product registration database.

No

Yes

Packaging

2   The packaging has a water rating label.

No

Yes

3   The water rating label on the packaging matches the listing in the product registration database.

No

Yes

4   The model name on the packaging matches the listing in the product registration database.

No

Yes

5   The organisation licence number matches the listing in the product registration database.

No

Yes

Display and labelling

6   The model name displayed with the product matches the listing in the product registration database.

No    ▶    Go to question 7

Yes   ▶    Go to question 8

7   The registration number is displayed with the product.

No

Yes

8   The water rating label and/or text advice is displayed with the product.

No

Yes

9   The water rating label and/or text advice is prominent and visible to customers.

No

Yes

10   The water rating label and/or text advice matches the listing in the product registration database.

No

Yes